Tēnā Koutou Katoa, Greetings to you,

Mothers at the margins.

"At the going down of the sun and in the morning, let us remember them".

Last Sunday was Mother's Day. I received a letter from a dear friend of my mother who has grandchildren attending our College. It had a few photos and a newspaper article about my mother receiving an award as an "Unsung Hero" of the community. Though she died almost ten years ago, I did remember my mother on Mother's Day.

At Church on Sunday, those who were mothers were asked to stand for a prayer and a blessing. It was rather nice to see these women in our community being recognised and blessed by the community and Priest. My mother was certainly there in my heart and mind receiving a blessing.

My mother was a strong advocate for social justice and gave many years of her life to supporting people in need. She was always willing to challenge her children about their thinking and their awareness of the community. On Mother's Day my mother reminded me of the marginal mothers in our community who were unable to stand and be blessed at Church.

There were women at our Church who were unable to have children for physiological reasons. Some medical conditions became known later in life as they tried to have children. Their dreams had to be left aside, for not everyone is blessed with their desired health.

There were women who had elected to avoid using in-vitro methods of attaining conception because the Church raises concerns about the morality and ethics of such treatment. Though the Church stresses the primacy of an informed conscience, not everyone is blessed with a clear conscience.

The women who are in same sex relationships were there. They do have options available to have a child or to adopt a child, but they did not fit the traditional vision of what it means to be a mother within the Catholic Church. Not everyone is blessed for their sexuality.

The women who had taken a vow of chastity, poverty and obedience were at Church. Some had been mother to hundreds of children during the years that they gave to their vocation of teaching. Their presence and influence lives on in the life of many. Not everyone is blessed for their election to forgo having a family.

The "aunties" of the world were at Church. We had two in our life as children. Women who were not married and were without children, but they were a wonderful care option for children when parents were busy doing other things. They fed and fussed over us as the children they never had. Sometimes they became our virtual mothers, providing advice and opinion irrespective of whether it was being sought! Not everyone is blessed to have their own child.

The woman whose child had died in her womb was there. Her desire to give life and be a mother had not faded with time. The day rekindled the memories of her aspirations. Nearby was the woman whose children no longer speak to her. Troubled by thoughts of failure as a mother, not everyone is blessed to have a pure heart.

Mother earth was also present, Papatūānuku was there at Church. The mother we often forget. She who provides us with all that we need to sustain our life and the lives of those who are yet to come. Some of her abusive children were present and counting their blessings that Mother's Day.

Many of us are familiar with sections from the poem "For the Fallen", written by Laurence Binyon as he reflected upon the Great War. It beseeches us to remember all who give of themselves to others. The unsung, unknown marginal mothers alongside the mothers we all know so well. Let us remember them.

For the Fallen

With proud thanksgiving, a mother for her children, England mourns for her dead across the sea. Flesh of her flesh they were, spirit of her spirit, Fallen in the cause of the free.

Solemn the drums thrill; Death august and royal Sings sorrow up into immortal spheres, There is music in the midst of desolation And a glory that shines upon our tears.

They went with songs to the battle, they were young, Straight of limb, true of eye, steady and aglow. They were staunch to the end against odds uncounted; They fell with their faces to the foe.

They shall grow not old, as we that are left grow old: Age shall not weary them, nor the years condemn. At the going down of the sun and in the morning We will remember them.

They mingle not with their laughing comrades again; They sit no more at familiar tables of home; They have no lot in our labour of the day-time; They sleep beyond England's foam.

But where our desires are and our hopes profound, Felt as a well-spring that is hidden from sight, To the innermost heart of their own land they are known As the stars are known to the Night;

As the stars that shall be bright when we are dust, Moving in marches upon the heavenly plain; As the stars that are starry in the time of our darkness, To the end, to the end, they remain.

Laurence Binyon

We have our 1st XI Hockey Team, Netball Collegiate Team 1, 1st XI Boys' Football team, JMC Hockey and Football teams all attending various tournaments and representing our school in August and September this year.

Our current tracksuits are looking very tired and used, and we would love to provide the students with new ones this year.

If you think you may be able to help us out, or would like to see our sponsorship packages, please get in touch with me (contact details on page 4).

POMPALLIER SHIELD 2023 ...

After a hiatus of three years, due to Covid, The Pompallier Shield finally came to Pompallier Catholic College on Wednesday 3rd May. The Shield is an interschool competition between all the Catholic Secondary Schools in the Auckland Diocese – that is 15 schools in total. It is a very big event with over 200 students involved. Although the competition has been around for a long time, this was the first time that we have ever hosted it.

The day began with a powhiri welcoming all the manuhiri. We had the honour of having the Mayor of the Far North, Moko Tepania, speak. Moko is not only a past student and teacher from the College, but he won one of the competition categories several times. After the powhiri, the competition began! There were six categories all occurring simultaneously: Junior Scripture, Senior Scripture, Scripture in Te Reo, Junior Prepared Speech, Senior Oratory and Group Waiata.

After two hours of competition, it was time for lunch. When given the task of providing the food for the day, our Hospitality Department decided to honour the origins of the name of our school. As Bishop Jean-Baptiste Pompallier came from France, dishes from his home country were provided for morning tea and lunch, for around 300 people. Quiche, vol au vent, croissants filled with camembert, boeuf bourguignon, cassoulet, baguette, normandy apple cake and chocolate mousse! Senior students gave generously of their time and efforts to help staff and the delicious food was enjoyed by all.

After lunch we were treated to seeing several of the best waiata presentations from the different schools and then on to prize-giving. All were expertly MC'd by Mayor Moko Tepania. The day culminated with awarding the Pompallier Shield to St Mary's College from Auckland. Although we didn't receive any top three places, our team did us proud. We finished the day with a closing liturgy and literally passed the Pompallier candle to the next school, Rosmini College.

We received much appreciation from all the visitors for the day. Special commendation was given about all our students who helped as volunteers. Their friendliness and helpfulness was acknowledged by many.

Many of our staff contributed to the success of the day and special acknowledgement needs to be made of Mrs Adams for the thoroughness of her organisation and Mrs Finchett for the preparation and delivery of the food. Overall, the day was a wonderful celebration of the diversity and richness of our Catholic Church.
